Donovan Eludes Press in Miami

MIAMI, Dec. 20 (UPI)—Attorney James B. Donovan was expected to return to Havana today for a final bargaining session with Cuban Premier Fidel Castro on the proposed exchange of 1113 prisoners for $53 million worth of drugs, medical supplies and food.

Mr. Donovan slipped into Miami last night after announcing in Havana he had received Castro's answer regarding the release of the men captured 19 months ago in the abortive Bay of Pigs invasion.

(In Havana, a relative of the prisoners said they might be freed at any moment, altho it probably will be early next week before they are released.)

In Hamburg, Germany, a spokesman said the Hamburg shipping line had agreed to furnish the 1200-passenger cruise ship Wappen Von Hamburg, which now is under charter to a Bahamas firm, to transport the prisoners.

The swift, 342-foot vessel, which has its own hospital ward, is engaged in Miami-to-Nassau runs.
